REPLY AFFIRMATION OF ROBERT A. WOLF IN FURTHER SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR WRIT OF EXECUTION AND TURNOVER ORDER

ROBERT A. WOLF, an attorney duly admitted to practice law in this Court, affirms the following to be true under the penalties of perjury:

1. I am a member of the law firm Tarter Krinsky & Drogin LLP, special litigation counsel to Robert L. Geltzer, as chapter 7 trustee (the “Trustee” or “Plaintiff”) of the debtor Advanced Fleet Maintenance, Inc. (the “Debtor”) in the above-captioned bankruptcy case, and as Trustee, the Plaintiff in the above-captioned adversary proceeding (the “Adversary Proceeding”), in which a judgment (the “Judgment”) was docketed in favor of Plaintiff and against Defendants Advance Fleet Maintenance, LLC (“Advance Fleet”), AFM Maintenance Ltd. (“AFM”) and Frank Almona (“Almona”) (collectively, “Defendants” or “Judgment Debtors”) in the amount of $230,000.00 on December 9, 2015. I am fully familiar with the matters set forth herein.

2. I submit this Reply Affirmation in further support of Plaintiff’s motion (the “Motion”) for the issuance of a writ of execution and an order directing non-party American General Life Insurance Company (“AGL”) to turn over funds in its possession belonging to defendant/judgment debtor Almona, with respect to an annuity (the “Annuity” or “Annuity Account”) that was purchased by Almona with his personal funds in 2001, to satisfy partially the Judgment.

3. As set forth in Plaintiff’s initial motion papers, the Court has discretion to direct that a portion of the proceeds in the Annuity Account be turned over to Plaintiff pursuant to New York Insurance Law § 3212(d)(2), which provides that a court may order an annuitant “to pay to a judgment creditor or apply on the judgment in installments, a portion of [t]he benefits [under an annuity contract] that appears just and proper to the court, with due regard for the reasonable requirements of the judgment debtor and his family, if dependent upon him, as well as any payments required to be made by the annuitant to other creditors under prior court orders.”

4. Almona opposes the Motion by contending that he is retired from employment, that he “need[s] funds from my annuity in order to pay basic and modest monthly living expenses going forward,” and that he purchased the Annuity in 2001 “with the express intent of saving the funds for my retirement.” (Objection of Frank Almona (“Almona Opp.”), ¶¶ 2, 3, 10). As discussed herein, Almona’s contention that he needs the funds from the Annuity to cover his living expenses is, at best, highly dubious.

5. Almona was asked at his deposition, which was taken on June 6, 2016 in connection with the Trustee’s efforts to collect on the Judgment, whether he had “any type of retirement account,” and his response was “Not that I remember.”¹ (Ex. A², p. 130). This means that Almona either purposely failed to disclose the Annuity or that it was not important enough for him to remember. Either way, his assertion in opposition to the Motion that he needs all of the funds for retirement rings hollow in light of his failure to mention or remember that he had a retirement account, when he was specifically asked about this under oath.

6. Moreover, Almona testified at his deposition that he is a mechanic employed by AFM, of which he is the owner, and that he had been receiving a salary from AFM – he did not testify that he is retired. (Ex. A, pp. 19, 25-26, 29-30, 106-107). However, even if Almona has retired within the past several months since his deposition was taken, he still fails to demonstrate that he needs all of the funds from the Annuity for his living expenses.

7. Almona has had the same income and expenses for some time now, but has not yet taken any withdrawals from the Annuity – and did not even recall having a retirement account at his deposition – which seems to indicate that the entirety of the funds in the Annuity Account are not needed by him for his living expenses. Almona testified at his deposition that AFM’s employees (which would include himself) had not received any salary since the time of Plaintiff’s levy on AFM’s bank account, which was in approximately April 2016. (Ex. A, pp. 27-30). He testified that his monthly income consisted of social security and Veteran disability benefits – the same sources of income that he itemizes in opposition to the Motion. (Ex. A, pp. 30-31). Almona further testified that his income goes into his joint bank account with his live-in girlfriend of 19 years, Olga Vlachos³, and that while he makes monthly car payments, she pays many of the monthly expenses, such as the common charges for the townhouse in which they reside. (Ex. A, pp. 59-65).⁴ He does not allege any new expenses since the time of the deposition.

¹ The deposition was taken prior to the production by Almona of documents concerning the Annuity, so at the time of the deposition counsel for Plaintiff was not aware of the existence of the Annuity.

8. It also is noteworthy that Almona claims that his “left knee is ‘wired’ after a prior operation” (Almona Opp., ¶ 2), yet he sets forth that he has monthly car payments totaling $1,057 (Almona Opp., ¶ 7). If Almona can drive a car, then it is unclear as to the relevancy of the fact that his knee is wired. If he cannot drive a car, then “monthly car payments” are not legitimate expenses.

9. Almona’s reliance on In re Lynch, 321 B.R. 114 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2005), is misplaced. In Lynch, which was a Chapter 7 bankruptcy proceeding that involved the issue of whether an annuity was exempt, the trustee’s counsel conceded that there were no grounds to challenge the debtor’s claim that his annuity was required for necessary living expenses. 131 B.R. at 119. To the contrary, as discussed herein, Almona’s claim that the Annuity is required for his living expenses is suspect and does not appear to be asserted in good faith.

10. In sum, there is no valid reason why this Court should not find that it is “just and proper,” pursuant to New York Insurance Law § 3212(d)(2), to order that a portion of the approximately $182,000 in the Annuity should be turned over to Plaintiff in partial satisfaction of the outstanding Judgment.

³ Ex. A, p. 33.

⁴ Almona testified that Ms. Vlachos also has, in addition to the joint bank account with him, her own separate bank account. (Ex. A, p. 64).

WHEREFORE, it is respectfully requested that the Court issue a writ of execution and direct AGL to turn over to Plaintiff a specified portion of the funds in the Annuity Account, and grant such other and further relief in favor of Plaintiff as this Court deems just and proper.

getting paid?

MR. SCHULTZ: Objection to the form of the question. I'll let him answer it, but it is probably irrelevant.

A. Okay. The answer would be yes to that. It would have to be yes because they haven't been paid.

MS. BERNSTEIN:

Q. And is there money to pay the employees?

A. No.

Q. What's your plan for paying the

MR. SCHULTZ: Objection to the

5 Q. Do you have a plan for paying

9 we can resolve this and I can do something
10 to help them get back to work. That's all
11 I can say.

12 Q. You said they're not working.
13 Do they come to the office location?

14 A. They pass by, yes. They want to 15 know what's going on.

16 Q. Is there any income received by
17 the company?

18 A. Right now the bank account is 19 levied and it's outstanding. No.

20 Q. How do you get paid? Do you get

22 MR. SCHULTZ: Do you have a time
23 frame for that question?

24 Q. Currently. Say the last year,
25 how did you get an income?

ALMONA

A. I get a check. I get a check from the company.

Q. How often?

A. Once a week.

Q. I'm talking about in general.
I'm talking about the past year, how much

A. Yes.

1 ALMONA

2 MR. SCHULTZ: Is that
3 approximate?

4 A. Approximately 13, not exactly.

5 MS. BERNSTEIN:

6 Q. So is your medical or health
7 insurance provided for through Social
8 Security?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And for disability, how much do

A. I had to pay the mortgage to take her name off the deed. In order for me to get her name taken off the deed, the house had to be paid off. That's why I said that.

Q. And another mortgage wasn't obtained at that point?

A. No.

MS. BERNSTEIN: I will ask for the production of documents concerning the pay-off, the satisfaction of that mortgage that Mr. Almona had testified about.

MR. SCHULTZ: Taken under advisement.

A. 15 years ago.

MS. BERNSTEIN: I will mention again towards the end of the deposition about the documents. But we haven't received any documents as we discusses before the deposition with respect to Mr. Almona individually. And among the documents sought by the subpoena are statements of bank accounts in which he has an interest individually or jointly from January 2013 to date.

So I'm going to reiterate production of those bank account statements.

MR. SCHULTZ: Your request is duly noted.

Q. Who is paying the real estate taxes? In the past year, who has been paying the real estate taxes for the house?

25 liens on the townhouse?

1 ALMONA

2 A. No liens.

3 Q. Do you know if the common
4 charge, the assessments are current?

5 A. They're current.

6 Q. The real estate taxes and
7 insurance payments, are they current?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. So is Ms. Vlahos paying for 10 those from your joint account? Are the 11 checks drawn to pay those charges from 12 your joint account?

13 A. Yes.

18 Q. I'm sorry?

19 A. I think she pays from her own

21 Q. So you have a joint account and 22 she also has a separate account?

23 A. She has a separate account.

24 Q. Is Ms. Vlahos currently
25 employed?

ALMONA

A. Currently, no.

Q. Does she have any income?

A. Well, she has gifts. Her mother.

Q. I'm sorry?

A. Her mother.

Q. Do you give money to Ms. Vlahos?

A. My Social Security check goes into our joint account, and that pays our bills, both checks.

Q. When you say "both checks," you mean the Social Security and disability checks go into your joint account?

A. Yes.

Q. What about the income of AFM?

A. That also goes into the joint account.

Q. So all of your income goes into the joint account?

A. Yes.

Q. And for how long has that been going into the joint account?

A. A long time.

A. Mr. Schuler, he runs the operation.

A. Yes.

Q. Does he do the hands-on mechanical?
